

Havana State Bank is taking shape, under the professional guidance of Jackie Dodson, contractor

Havana - A Very Different Florida

October 2023 NEWS AND EVENTS

The Pumpkins Are Coming!

October is Chock Full of Fun for the Entire Family

PUMPKIN FEST RETURNS

Mark your calendar for October 14 when one of Havana's iconic festivals returns for its 23rd year, PumpkinFest will dress the streets with over 100 vendors of all sorts. The vendors will tempt and delight, providing food, fun, arts and crafts and family entertainment, filling the downtown from 10:00AM to 4:00PM.

This ticketed event will host Costume Contests for both you and your pets, games for the kids, face painting and a pumpkin patch. Choose that perfect orb to dress up for All Hallows Eve at Kellum's Antiques. Pumpkins are available for purchase from now till they are gone. Assorted sizes and prices, check them out at the Garden center of Kellums Antique Center and be sure to enter the Carved Pumpkin Contest and the Decorated Pumpkin Contest. Deliver your entries to the Pumpkin Contest Tent on 2nd St. in the parking lot by noon to enter.

Be sure not to miss the Petting Zoo, Train and Trolley Rides and the Horse and Carriage!

Come early and stay for the day, there are two new contests to challenge you while you are at the festival. Cakes by Liz - Sweets and Treats is sponsoring a Pumpkin Pie Eating contest for adults and a Pumpkin Muffin Eating contest for kids. There is a $5.00 charge and only the first 20 registrants will be invited to compete.

Live music will entertain you, provided by Off the Rails Irish Pub while you experience one of Havana's oldest and most beloved festivals. Tickets for the event are; Adults $3.00 and Children are only $2.00. There is an additional fee for all rides and activities. Costume Contests start at 11:00AM for the pets and Noon for their humans.

Be sure to take a moment an answer our New PumpkinFest survey available by QR code, while you are enjoying the festivities.

VOLUNTEERS ARE STILL NEEDED
Call 850-755-2999

Do you have a Tractor or know someone who does?

Please reach out we are in need of both a Driver and Tractor to pull the Hay wagon at PumpkinFest
Call 850-755-2999

Welcome New

HAVANA MAIN STREET

Members

Made New Hair & Skin Care

315 NW 1st St.
Sarah Banks, Owner
By Appointment Only

Weekend Finds

212 N. Main St.
"Keeping the Tradition Alive"
Sandy Bolt and Warren Weeks
Owners

IS MOVING

Suite 20, Art Trail Space on 9th Street

AHA-liday Event
October through December 23.
The gallery will be open every Saturday from 11:00AM - 4:00PM, plus Tree Lighting, Friday November 10, 4:00-7:00PM, Black Friday November 24 and December 23. Follow AHA on Facebook at AHA Tallahassee for updates.

Volunteers make the events a success!

850-755-2999

ann.havanamainstreet@gmail.com
www.havanamainstreet.com

6th Annual Havana Quilt Show and Sale!

November 4 Join us for the Havana Quilt Show and Sale at the Hazel Baker Community Center. All quilts are hand pieced and sewn by a dedicated crew of quilters pulled together by Wendy Adams. Quilts of all sizes for King size beds to baby quilts and more.

You can WIN THIS QUILT

Buy your raffle tickets for this years quilt "Plum Fusion" 108" x 108". This beauty is on display in Wanderings. Tickets are available for purchase. Along with this lovely display of Americana, there will over 80 more to choose from, mark your calendar for November 4 from 10:00AM-4:00PM.

Join the community for the presentation of the Downtown Beautification - Vision of Havana by Dewberry Architects, Engineering and Design firm. Complied from the suggestions and desires of the citizens of Havana this final design will be discussed October 10 at 6:00PM at City Hall

Also join us on:
October 21 - Havana Cruise-In October 28 - Havana Market