

April 2023 NEWS AND EVENTS

“What a Wonderful World”

A tribute to Louis “Sachmo” Armstrong.

Led by Longineu Parsons

April 29, 2023

7:00 - 10:00

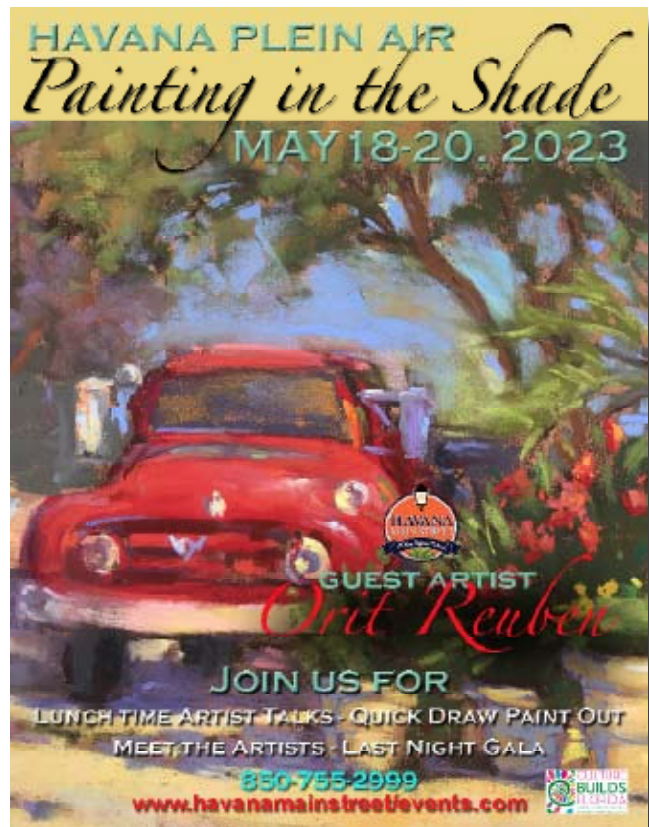

HAVANA HISTORY MUSEUM,
204 2ND STREET NW, HAVANA, FL

Join us for a once in a lifetime opportunity to see and hear Longineu Parsons and his band at the Havana History Museum.

Parsons is one of the world’s finest trumpeters and when he interprets Sachmo, he goes far beyond what can be studied or learned. The way he handles the trumpet and growls his vocals is as though he is channeling the great master of American music himself.

We are excited for him to play at Jazz’n Havana on April 29th. Tickets are $35.00 and are limited and will not be sold at the door. Consider buying a table for 10 and invite your friends to make a night of it. Refreshments will be provided and there will be a cash beer and wine bar.

Go to havanamainstreet.com/events to purchase your tickets today!

The Third Annual Painting in the Shade will take place May 18-20. This years’ guest is Miami Artist Orit Reuben. This is Orit’s third year of painting in the shade of beautiful Havana Join us for a gallery talk on Thursday at noon. This years’ venue is the Havana History Museum. Artists will paint at least one painting each day of the event. They will be bringing up to three previously painted works for display and sale and are available for commission work. There will be a Quick Draw Paint-out on Saturday for anyone wanting to try their hand at plein air. People interested in participating can download the prospectus at www.havanamainstreet.com/events

Havana - A Very Different Florida

Spirits Weren't Dampened by Weather

Arts & Crafts Bazaar

Food Trucks formed a make shift food court in the public parking lot with tents and tables to host their customers. Beer and snow cone sales were slow but spirits were high. 41 vendors helped round out the day selling everything from soap to hand made furniture. Nancy Saunders did a stellar job pulling together this new festival to help bring attention to our beautiful little community. Once again an army of volunteers helped make it all happen.

Once again an army of volunteers helped make it all happen.

Michael Hogan, a new member of the AHA Gallery, presented his skills as a caricaturist. Located at the corner of 1st and 7th avenue, he amazed people with his art. While around the corner by the food court, Eric Sapronetti painted a Tobacco Barn on a 4' x 6' panel. Teresa Reaver demonstrated metal piercing at the AHA Gallery tent while

Eric Sapronetti painted a Tobacco Barn on a 4' x 6' panel. Teresa Reaver demonstrated metal piercing at the AHA Gallery tent while

Havana Main Street volunteers answered questions and sold quilts.

Need to Drop something off for Havana Main Street? Just drop it in the bright red mailbox by our office door at 316

3rd Saturdays
Cruise-In

DOWNTOWN NW 1ST STREET

Be a part of making it happen!
Volunteers make the events a success.

Membership Committee - Promotions Committee
Design Committee and Exec. Board of Directors

Contact Havana Main Street for details
850-755-2999

